

Privacy Policy

Pink Creations Inc., dba Awards By Paul

Notice of Information Collection

Awards By Paul receives and securely stores information provided by customers and those affiliated with the customer.

We value the trust and respect the privacy of our customers.

All collection of data is at the discretion of the customer and Awards By Paul will not acquire more information than the customer has provided and is required to complete their order.

This information can include, but is not limited to, award recipients, email address, physical address, billing address, phone numbers, and credit cards.

All customer records are confidential and will not be shared with anyone.

Limited Access of Information

Awards By Paul does not disclose any customer information except when given permission or under special circumstances.

Our staff will only share information to 3rd parties when it is required to complete your order.

This may include suppliers, shipping agents, and payment processing systems.

These companies will not use information outside of order completion.

Policy Revisions and Questions

This privacy policy is subject to change without notification to customers.

If changes are made, they will be posted with revision date.

Contact Awards By Paul with questions or concerns:

Awards By Paul

(714) 491 - 1025

service@awardsbypaul.com

www.awardsbypaul.com

Last modified: 7/24/2017